Defendant.

: CASE NO.: 1:19-cv-00204

: Judge Donald C. Nugent

: SECOND AMENDED COMPLAINT

: A Trial by the Maximum Number of Jurors
: is hereby Demanded

For this Second Amended Complaint, Plaintiff, Christopher Twumasi-Ankrah, by undersigned counsel, states as follows:

JURISDICTION

1. This action arises out of Defendant's repeated violations of the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1681, et seq. (the "FCRA").
2. Jurisdiction is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331.
3. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), in that Defendant transacts business in this District and a substantial portion of the acts giving rise to this action occurred in this District.

PARTIES

4. Plaintiff, Christopher Twumasi-Ankrah (hereafter "Plaintiff"), is an adult individual whose residence is in Cleveland, Ohio, and is a "consumer" as the term is defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1681a(c).

5. Defendant, Checkr, Inc. (“Checkr”), is a California business entity with an address of 1 Montgomery Street, San Francisco, California 94104. Checkr is a consumer reporting agency as the term is defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1681(a)(f) and a reseller as the term is defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1681(a)(u). Checkr is regularly engaged in the business of assembling, evaluating, and dispersing information concerning consumers for the purpose of furnishing consumer reports, as defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1681(a)(d), to third parties.

ALLEGATIONS APPLICABLE TO ALL COUNTS

6. Plaintiff was a driver for the on-demand transportation company Uber.
7. Plaintiff relied on Uber to provide income.
8. Uber submitted Plaintiff’s information to Checkr and requested that Checkr provide a routine background screening report.
9. Checkr performed the background screening, which included requesting Plaintiff’s driving history abstract from the Ohio Bureau of Motor Vehicles (“Ohio BMV”).
10. The driving history abstract provided by the Ohio BMV included three accidents that Plaintiff was allegedly involved in on the following dates: October 23, 2015; December 19, 2015; and February 17, 2017.
11. Checkr was aware that the Ohio BMV includes in its driving history abstracts all accidents that a driver is involved in, regardless of fault.
12. Checkr also knew, or had to have known, that with respect to driving abstracts the Ohio BMV also has the following policy:

By statute, accident reports appear on the driving record for each driver and vehicle owner involved in a crash. The Bureau does not determine which driver is at fault. Under normal circumstances, a moving violation conviction carrying the same date as the accident report will imply fault in the crash. The lack of a conviction would, therefore, imply that the driver was not at fault.

(<http://publicsafety.ohio.gov/links/bmv3344.pdf> (emphasis added)).

13. Nonetheless, Checkr did not indicate on the Report that it provided to Uber that the lack of a conviction in Plaintiff's driving history implied that he was not at fault in two of the three accidents.

14. Checkr did not undertake any measures – such as reviewing the driving history abstract already in its possession to determine whether plaintiff had a moving violation conviction, and thus whether he was at fault, in any of the accidents; requesting additional information from the Ohio BMV; or requesting court records or police reports – to determine whether Plaintiff was at fault in any of the three accidents.

15. Instead, it furnished a report (“Report”) to Uber that showed Plaintiff was involved in the three accidents without indicating whether he was at fault.

16. A true and accurate copy of the Report that Checkr submitted to Uber is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

17. Because Plaintiff's fault in the accidents could be easily deduced by whether there were any convictions reported on the driver abstract, the Report did not accurately reflect the information Checkr received from the Ohio BMV.

18. It is reasonable for Uber to assume that, if a consumer reporting agency like Checkr reports that a driver was involved in an accident, the driver was at fault in that accident.

19. Whether a driver is at fault in an accident is material to Uber's decision whether to renew or terminate that driver's contract.

20. Whether a driver is at fault in an accident is a material fact that must be included with a report provided by Checkr.

21. Upon receiving the Report from Checkr, Uber terminated Plaintiff's contract due to the accidents contained in the Report.

22. Upon information and belief, Uber terminated Plaintiff's contract because it interpreted the Report to mean that Plaintiff was or may have been at fault in all of the accidents reported by Checkr.

23. However, Plaintiff was not at fault in at least two of the accidents – the December 19, 2015 accident and the February 17, 2017 accident.

24. Plaintiff pled not guilty to the charges against him resulting from the December 19, 2015 accident, and after trial of the matter, the court found Plaintiff not guilty.

25. A true and correct copy of the court's order finding Plaintiff not guilty in the December 19, 2015 accident is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

26. The court's order attached as Exhibit 2 incorrectly notes that Plaintiff entered a plea of not guilty on December 2, 2015 (which was before the December 19, 2015 accident). In fact, Plaintiff appeared and entered his not-guilty plea on December 28, 2015. See Public Docket Information attached hereto as Exhibit 3.

27. In the February 17, 2017 accident, Plaintiff was the victim of a hit-and-run in which he was rear-ended while stopped at a traffic light and was, therefore, not at fault in that accident either.

28. A true and correct copy of the Police Traffic Crash Report showing that Plaintiff was a victim of a hit-and-run rear ending in the February 17, 2017 accident is attached hereto as Exhibit 4.

29. Upon information and belief, had Uber understood that Plaintiff was not at fault in two of the accidents, Uber would not have terminated Plaintiff.

30. Had Checkr taken any reasonable measures to assure the maximum possible accuracy of its Report, such as reviewing the driving history abstract already in its possession to determine whether plaintiff had a moving violation conviction, and thus whether he was at fault, in any of the accidents; requesting additional information from the Ohio BMV; or requesting court records or police reports, it would have determined that Plaintiff was not at fault in two of the accidents.

31. Indeed, Plaintiff disputed the accuracy of the Report with Checkr and submitted the documents attached hereto as Exhibits 2 and 4 in support of that dispute.

32. Upon receiving the dispute, Checkr was obligated to reinvestigate the accuracy of the Report and, in so doing, to acquire and review additional information beyond the Ohio BMV's driving history abstract to determine whether the Report was accurate.

33. Checkr failed to conduct any reinvestigation into the accuracy of its Report.

34. Specifically, Checkr again failed to review the driving history abstract already in its possession to determine whether plaintiff had a moving violation conviction, and thus whether he was at fault, in any of the accidents; to request additional information from the Ohio BMV; or to request court records or police reports, to determine whether Plaintiff was at fault in any of the three accidents.

35. Further, Checkr failed to include in its Report and submit to Uber the documents Plaintiff provided with his dispute, which proved he was not at fault in two of the accidents.

36. Instead, Checkr responded to Plaintiff that the original Report was accurate and refused to supplement or amend the Report that it had submitted to Uber.

37. By reporting the accidents without indicating that Plaintiff was not at fault – which can reasonably be inferred to indicate that Plaintiff was at fault – Checkr’s Report was so misleading as to be inaccurate.

38. The inaccurate Report contained damaging information to Plaintiff’s character and reputation. Specifically, the Report provided that Plaintiff was involved in two accidents – which can reasonably be inferred to mean that Plaintiff was at fault – but failed to specify that he was not at fault in those accidents.

39. Plaintiff has suffered actual damages in the form of loss of employment, lost wages, and harm to reputation.

40. Plaintiff has additionally suffered actual damages in the form of emotional distress, in that the loss of his job and source of income, harm to his reputation, and the frustration and inconvenience of disputing the inaccurate Report and Checkr’s subsequent refusal to correct it caused Plaintiff to suffer anxiety, stress, frustration, embarrassment and humiliation.

41. Checkr failed to take any steps to verify that all material information regarding the accidents was included in Plaintiff’s Report before furnishing it to Uber.

42. The Report that Checkr submitted to Uber was so misleading as to be inaccurate.

43. At all times pertinent hereto, the conduct of Checkr, as well as that of its agents, servants and/or employees – who are well aware of their obligations under the FCRA – was objectively unreasonable, intentional, willful, reckless, and in grossly negligent disregard of federal law.

COUNT I
(Violations of the Fair Credit Reporting Act)
(15 U.S.C. § 1681, et seq.)

44. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all of the above paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully stated herein.

45. U.S.C. § 1681e(b) provides that “[w]hen a consumer reporting agency prepares a consumer report it shall follow reasonable procedures to assure maximum possible accuracy of the information concerning the individual about whom the report relates.”

46. Defendant violated § 1681e(b) of the FCRA by failing to follow reasonable procedures to assure maximum accuracy of the information contained in its Report and by failing to verify the accuracy of the information contained in its Report.

47. 15 U.S.C. § 1681i(a) provides that “if the completeness or accuracy of any item of information contained in a consumer’s file at a consumer reporting agency is disputed by the consumer and the consumer notifies the agency directly, or indirectly through a reseller, of such dispute, the agency shall, free of charge, conduct a reasonable reinvestigation to determine whether the disputed information is inaccurate and record the current status of the disputed information, or delete the item from the file in accordance with paragraph (5), before the end of the 30-day period beginning on the date on which the agency receives the notice of the dispute from the consumer or reseller.”

48. Defendant violated § 1681i(a) by failing to conduct a reasonable investigation after Plaintiff submitted the dispute, including by failing (a) to review the driving history abstract already in its possession to determine whether plaintiff had a moving violation conviction, and thus whether he was at fault, in any of the accidents; (b) to request additional information from the Ohio BMV; (c) to request court records or police reports; or (d) to take into consideration the documents Plaintiff provided with his dispute, which proved he was not at fault in two of the accidents. Had it done any of these things, Defendant would have discovered that Plaintiff was not at fault in two of the accidents included in the Report.

49. Checkr further violated § 1681i(a) by failing to record the current status of Plaintiff's Report as disputed or to delete the accidents at issue from the Report.

50. These failures directly caused the denial of Plaintiff's employment with Uber, which has damaged Plaintiff.

51. As a result of Defendant's violations of §§ 1681e(b) and 1681i(a) of the FCRA, Plaintiff is entitled to damages, costs, and attorney's fees pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681n and 1681o.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays that judgment be entered against Defendants:

1. Statutory damages pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681n(a)(1)(B);
2. Actual damages pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681o(a)(1);
3. Punitive damages pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681n(a)(2);
4. Attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681n(a)(3) and 1681o(a)(2); and
5. Such other and further relief as may be just and proper.

California Applicants/Employees Only: The report does not guarantee the accuracy or truthfulness of the information as to the subject of the investigation, but only that it is accurately copied from public records, and information generated as a result of identity theft, including evidence of criminal activity, may be inaccurately associated with the consumer who is the subject of the report. An investigative consumer reporting agency shall provide a consumer seeking to obtain a copy of a report or making a request to review a file, a written notice in simple, plain English and Spanish setting forth the terms and conditions of his or her right to receive all disclosures, as provided in Section 1786.26.

Sólo para los Solicitantes/Empleados de California: En el informe no se garantiza la exactitud o veracidad de la información en cuanto al tema de la investigación, sino sólo que se ha copiado exactamente de los registros públicos, y la información generada como resultado del robo de identidad, incluyendo las pruebas de una actividad delictiva, podría estar incorrectamente asociada con el consumidor que sea el sujeto del informe. Una agencia investigadora de informes de crédito deberá suministrarle a un consumidor que trate de obtener una copia de un informe o solicite revisar un archivo una notificación por escrito en inglés y español lisos y llanos, en la que se establezcan los términos y las condiciones de su derecho a recibir toda la información, como se dispone en la Sección 1786.26.
